FIGHT ON WATER DISCOUNTS ISSUE TAKEN TO COURT

George Eckford Petitions Court to Compel Borough To Continue Discounting Bills.

CASE TO BE HEARD ON THURSDAY NEXT

Plaintiff Claims Borough Exceeds Powers in Eliminating Water Bill Reduction System.

Legal steps to compel the borough of Atlanta to continue the discount rate on water bills were taken Thursday when George A. Eckford, representative-elect from Fulton county, filed a petition in Fulton superior court seeking a restraining order against the borough. Hearing on the petition was set for next Thursday by Judge Edgar E. Pomeroy. In the meantime, the plaintiff consented to forego the customary temporary order, so as not to inconvenience the borough, but pointed out that anyone whose water bill was paid before the case is decided could so under protest and thus be enabled to recover the amount of the disputed discount should the court hold with the plaintiff.

In a statement issued Thursday night Mr. Eckford declared his belief that council violated the provisions of the legislative act of 1927, in which it is provided that the water depart-ment of the city shall not be a profitfied, he said, when Judge Pomeroy set the case for early hearing, next Thursday.

Mr. McClain also drew special atas party plaintiffs, as well as to the fact that people paying their water bills before the case is decided could protect themselves by paying the discount portion of their bills under formal protest.

Mr. Eckford's statement, given out

Rumanian Peasants Flee Movie Thriller

GEOROVESTI, Rumania, Jan.

22.—(P)—The introduction of motion pictures into this village tonight caused a stampede in which 12 persons were trampled, some of them being seriously injured.

A peasant audience, no member of which ever had seen a movie before, was assembled in the hall to view a cinematic thriller, and suddenly the scene flashed to a locomotive roaring straight down the track.

The engine appeared to rush out from the screen into the hall and the sight of this giant monster was too much for the spectators. They all made a wild rush for the door and in the ensuing frenzy all fittings of the building were wrecked.

VET HOSPITALIZATION REACHES NEW PEAKS

Nearly 32,000 Men Now Under Veterans' Bureau Care.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(P)—Veterans' Administrator Hines notified President Hoover today that during November and December the hospitalization of veterans had risen to its highest peak since the World War. After his conference, he said nearly 32,000 veterans are now under veterans' bûreau hospital care.

The utilization of soldiers' home facilities, he added, so far this year also has exceeded any previous year's experience since their establishment in 1867. Some 23,000 veterans are at the homes.

Loans to veterans on adjusted service certificates since the first of January have been made to veterans at the rate of approximately $1,000,000 providing day. per working day.

In order to expedite the examination of veterans and their claims, the field staff has been augmented by 743 additional personnel, including 65 physicians.

During December the veterans' administration disbursed a total of $66,-397,610 for all purposes. Similar disbursements for the first half of the WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(P) WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(P)— The influenza situation prompted Sur-geon General Cumming, of the public health service, today to "emphasize anew public precautions and personal hygiene practices upon which its pre-wention depends."

"Go home and go to bed," was laid down as the "keynote rule" in its check and cure.

"Call the doctor," came the next, but rules also were given in case the doctor couldn't come.

They were: "Remain in bed, eat a simple diet, take plenty of fluids such as water, fruit juices, milk, bouillon and hot soups at frequent innot take any so-called cure.

There is no specific cure."
This procedure, Dr. Cumming said, should prevent the influenza patient from becoming seriously ill.

Influenza itself, he emphasized, is not fatal—the pneumonia which often follows it is frequently fatal. Rest was stressed as most important.

"Remain in bed until all symptoms have disappeared and then, under the physician's advice, return very grad-ually to usual physical activities, be-ing sure to rest before becoming tired," was the surgeon general's prescription.

For the able-bodied he prescribed:

Hugh Hodgson, whose outstanding art as a pianist has placed him in the forefront of southern concert artists, will give a recital at Egleston Memorial hall on Monday evening next, at S:15.

Mr. Hodgson, who has made Atlanta his home for some years now, devotes the greater part of his time to teaching, and it is only rarely that he can be prevailed upon to give a concert himself. These rare occasions, however, are always looked upon by Atlanta music lovers as among the Atlanta music lovers as among the treats of the year and the anouncement that he is to play is ample assurance of a large and discriminating audience.

The program selected by Mr. Hodgson for his recital Monday night is remarkable for the wide range of selections, offering ample opportunity for the marvelous technique as well as for the intense artistic interpretive genius that has made Mr. Hodgson's playing synonymous with perfection among connoisseurs of the piano.

"Hitherto the term has so shocked most moralists that they have met it largely with blind antagonism. Moralists must see both courtship and court rooms.

Wants Adjustment First.

"The adjustments of two independent and high-spirited personalities after marlrage are not easy, and when these are complicated within a few months by the new relationship of parenthood and the economic difficulties which ensue, the problem does often become bewildering.

"It is because of this too hasty complication of life for the young couple that Judge Lindsey and others suggest postponement of children for a time until the economic adjustment is made and the husband-wife relationship has had opportunity to develop. "Trial marriage," which must be distinguished from "companionate marriage," is a proposal to postpone the birth of children until the wedded couple have tested their compatibility. In 'trial marriage' the union takes on a binding nature at the coming of offspring.

with an assertion that Mr. Hoover's remarks must not be interpreted as closing the door to all proposals for prohibition modification.

The statement of the Ohio senator, speaking in the capacity of national chairman, occasioned no less surprise than the earlier declaration of the president himself. The significance attaching to it is no less great, either. He would not say that the president favored any other form of revision or had any other form of revision or had any other idea of modification over that suggested by members of the Wickersham commission.

"I just simply say," said Senator Fess, "that Mr. Hoover did not close the door to any revision when he rejected this substitute amendment because it would throw prohibition forever into politics."

Here's the Way to Treat Those Miserable Colds So Prevalent Here Now

WITH scattered cases of flu breaking out in this locality, don't take chances with colds NOW—it's too dangerous! Unless checked quickly, colds tend to pull down the body resistance and may pave the way for an attack of flu with all its serious complica-

- At the first sign of stuffiness or irritation in the nose or throat, snuff some Vicks VapoRub up the nose several times a day. This will often check a cold at the start.
- If the head is all "stuffed up"-clogged with mucus or phlegm -or there is much coughing, melt a teaspoonful of Vicks in a bowl or kettle of hot water and inhale the steaming vapors for five minutes at a time. This treatment has a remarkable effect in clearing the air passages, easing the breathing, soothing the irritation, relieving the cough, and helps to prevent the cold from spreading.
- At bedtime, in order to get the benefit of its long-continued stimulation and inhalation effect, rub Vicks vigorously over the throat and chest and cover with warm flannel.
- If possible, stay at home until the cold is broken. Complete rest helps the body to throw off the cold more quickly.

Mother!—treat children's colds promptly, but avoid "dosing." Too much internal medicine often upsets the child's digestion and lowers the vitality. Being applied externally, Vicks does not upset the stomach, and can be used freely and as often as needed without the slightest harmful effect.

The French are very intelligent, especially the educated class, and they have a highly organized government, but from the practical viewpoint they often become deeply involved in nonessential details and lose sight of the main objective.

In view of the uncertainty of obtaining more than a limited amount of ocean tonnage it was natural that we should procure abroad as large a proportion of supplies as possible, and our supply departments began at once to make inquiries to meet the demands of construction material, subsistence stores and engineering equipment. Many sources of general supply had been developed by the French and we soon found ourselves not only in competition with them and the British, but our 'different departments also began to bid against each other.

Anna Pavlova's appearances in thi country were unusual in that they did not include merely the usual "star" presentation in New York's great opera houses. She appeared in small towns—in vaudeville houses, in small amusement houses where the name o an European actress was scarcely known. Yet everywhere she went, in small cities and large, she attracted the same outbursts of applause. She was as fascinating in a village as in a city and held the same compelling magnetism for the unsophisticated theater-goer as for the continental or cosmopolitan connoisseur. Audiences often stood on the the-ater chairs to cheer her after some particularly spectacular performance and her ready and willing response to repeated encores endeared her still further to the multitudes.

Not even the insouciant Bobby Dodd and all his competitive wizardry could form a defense which the Jackets could not penetrate. They stabbed through to a 4-point lead in exactly 48 seconds as the game began and they never relinquished the advantage.

The Volunteers hung doggedly on until a few minutes before the half ended when a Jacket spurt brought the score to 22 to 11 at the midway halt.

The Jackets showed greatly improved form against Georgia last Saturday night despite the fact that the game was lost. They came whirling back to defeat Florida on Tuesday night. The victory Thursday night was the best showing of the year.

The Jackets passed cleverly, tearing up the man to man defense which Ten-nessee used, with seeming ease. The Tennessee defense was really effective for about ten minutes of the first half. After that Roy Mundorff's squad solved it.

NOT AIR TIGHT.

Tech's shifting zone defense, which slides out to meet the attack, was fluid enough to cover the floor well. It was not at all air-tight, however, the Vols slipping through for a number of shots which they missed.

That startling first 48 seconds saw Ginny Wages, the Tech captain, slip through the lines and flip in a couple of baskets.

This probably makes all the base-ball reporters very fond of Joe Engel. They do not have to think up something to make him appear like an exciting sort of person. Former Wrestling Champion Says German Is a Real Fighter and Can Hit.

By Ralph McGill.

T REMAINED for Dick Shikat, the big German wrestler, to toss a note of discord into the sweet harmony which is being sung here and there about the championship prospects of W. L. (Young) Stribling.
W. L. Stribling battles Max Schmeling, a piece of the old Rhine, in June for the world's heavyweight title. And there is scarcely a man who believes that Max Schmeling has a chance to win. Dick Shikat, who held the world's wrestling title until relieved of it a short while ago by Jim Londos, the Grecian Apollo, tossed Paul Jones

NO IDLE FIGHTER.

STRUGGLING manfully the big wrestler explained that Schmeling had not been idle in Germany. In lact Shikat believes that he has improved in his boxing and that a surprise is planned for the Georgia boxer when he steps into the ring with the title at stake.

Associated Press Sports Writer.

NEW YORK. Jan. 22.—(P)—Captain Malcolm Campbell, soft-spoken British racing driver and his slim, streamlined machine, named for a blue bird, but more powerful than a thousand horses, arrived in the United States today for an assault on the world's automobile speed record.

Sometime after February 1, Gaptain Campbell will hurl his Blue Bullet along the sands of Daytona Beach.

"Ich say this not because he be my countryman aber because he ist real fighter. I know. He vill beat Stribling."

Dick Shikat, who is a genial man outside the ring, thinks that wrestling is booming because of the fact that are giving it their best efforts.

JOE SEWELL JOB

The Cracker officials have a tentative meeting set for Saturday. By that time they expect to have some word from the White Sox regarding some new players, probably an outfielder and a pitcher.

Most important, however, is the meeting of the Cracker minds on Saturday or early next week in case the Saturday date proves inconvienent.

Joe Sewell, the Alabama boy released by the Cleveland club this week at the terrible old age of 32, will be offered a Cracker contract if he is still a free agent and John Dobbs, Cracker skipper, thinks he can be fitted in.

"We have a number of free agents on our list," said President Robert Thursday afternoon, "This year we are not going to just sign anyone who happens to be free. We are going to investigate the records and the men. We will find out in advance if they have sore arms or bad legs.

Activity of President Robert and others of the directors augers well for the success of the 1931 club.

President Robert spent last season learning the game. This year finds him devoting considerable time to the club despite the pressure of his own business.

Boxing and Fencing Are Dropped in Retrenchment Plan.

ATHENS, Ga., Jan. 22.-Intercollegiate boxing at the University of Georgia has been discontinued for the present year, university athletic officials announced today. The action was taken in keeping with a policy of financial retrenchment in minor sports. Officials have declared that Georgia has too great a number of minor sports.

Class tournaments will be held between the three upper classes and among members of the freshman class, among members of the freshman class, the announcement said. Seniors, juniors and sophomores will compete in a tournament between the three classes, while a separate tournament will be held for the freshmen class. Winners in the first tournament will be awarded minor G's, and freshman winners will be given numeral sweat-ers.

Upper classmen who win in the respective classes will be taken to the A. A. U. meet in Atlanta later in the year. Fencing, which was established last year, is another minor sport which has been removed from intercollegiate competition by the university.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Jan. 22.—

(P)—The Hot Springs New Era says today Ban Johnson, former president of the American league, must undergo an operation for removal of the little toe of his right foot in the near future. The paper says physicians now are trying to build up his vitality for the operation.

Johnson came to St. Joseph's infirmary here last Friday after four months' illness in a St. Louis hospital. The paper says the infection developed from an injury received in a crowd some time ago when some one stepped on Johnson's toe.

WHY TAKE

THERE'S no need to drug your-self with laxatives when consti-pation can be overcome by eating a delicious cereal. Mr. F. C. Aminsen, Kennyhole,

F. C. Aminsen, Kennyhole, Washington, writes:

"I suffered with chronic constipation for many years and was compelled to use pills every night, but since I got your Kellogg's ALL-BRAN it works fine. I would not be without it. I was so deathly sick of taking pills every night. Now it is so different. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN works so naturally and is pleasant to take."

Just eat two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily. Relief is guaranteed. It is the natural, safe way.

Delicious with milk or cream, fruits or honey added. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood. In the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

MEXICO PLANNING BEER OFFENSIVE

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 22.—(R)—
The government today estimated that Mexico will produce approximately 40,000,000 gallons of pulque, popular alcoholic beverage, in 1931. Production is destined principally for home consumption.

As a means of improving her economic status Mexico is preparing an international beer offensvie. The government has agreed to grant facilities for exportation and breweries are devoting their attention to the foreign field.

If you find life becomes a bore You need a change and nothing more, —Billy Mink.

Life sometimes does become a bore to even such active little folk as Billy Mink. Doing the same things over and over becomes tiresome. Nothing seems really worth doing. Things that were fun are fun no longer. What is needed then is a change of scene. Perhaps it is because most of them have a change twice a year that the feathered folk are usually so happy.

do was to decide in which direction to go and then start.

He was running along the Laughing Brook at the time. He simply kept on running. He followed the Laughing Brook deeper and deeper into the Green Forest until he came to the pond of Paddy the Beaver. He climbed up on the roof of Paddy's house to rest and look around. The scent of Beaver came up to him through little air holes in the roof. He thought of Paddy and his family held prisoners there by the ice and pitted them. They didn't ask his pity. Goodness, no! They were quite happy and contented and, like Jerry Muskrat and his family, considered the ice a blessing. But Billy Mink turned up his nose at the thought of such a quiet life.

"It must be dull, terribly dull down there," thought he. "I don't see how they stand it. I couldn't. Let me see, where shall I go from here? I believe with the proof of the propose I would say that I have the wandewing."

"INSTALLMENT LIII.

"Presently he gave up the uneven competition. When he was about 14 he said to me one day: 'I'm no good as an example. I guess I'il just leave that to Jero; and be a warning.' It was after that the took to running away. He was expelled from school for climbing out of his window in the middle of the night, and then he ran away from home to be a cowboy. Of course he was brought back again. No member of the de la Montanya family could be a common cowboy. After that, there was no holding him. He fought restraint like a wild thing. He couldn't be a second edition of Jerome, so instead of imitating him, he turned everything that Jerome did into its opposite.

"Jerome had a good head for finance, and went into the banking firm of which his father had been head. As if out of sheer perversity, David took to gambling. He was should defiantly.

nance, and went into the banking firm of which his father had been head. As if out of sheer perversity, David took to gambling. He was caught in a low dive where there was a shooting fray and the police had to interfere, and he was taken to jail. Jerome bailed him out, of course, and the family hushed it up. Jerome could always be counted on to do the proper thing.

"There's more to it than that." Prefer faced the old woman sternly, until he forced her eyes to drop under the determination of his game. "Vou're holding something back. You dinn't tell me all that about David for nothing. You think there's some connothing. You think the additionally the youngle some there's some connothing. You think there's so an, and may the Lord forgive me for my sinful thoughts, but I always did think that the girl was asking for it. She saw a chance to climb into the De La Montanya money and social position. Anyway she went to Jerome about it, and he told David that he would have to marry her, to 'do the right thing by her,' were talking in the library across the hall, and I heard them. 'I won't have it said that a brother of mine ruined a girl and refused to make an honest woman of her,' he said.

"I can't make anything of her that she wasn't already,' David answered. I'm the damn fool of this family, and I'll admit it. But you can't make me over into your image. And I can't stand being locked up. Marrying Jessie would be the same thing as prison. I'm willing to go to hell, but I'm not willing to be shut up there.'

"He dashed out of the room and up the stairs. He ran away for like the limit of the climbin and the analysis of the stairs. He ran away for be read to the limit of the right think I'm between those brothers was a bond the same and the same thing as prison. I'm willing to be shut up there.'

as prison. I'm willing to go to hell, but I'm not willing to be shut up there.'

"He dashed out of the room and up the stairs. He ran away for good and all that night. That is the last we ever saw of him. Jerome was in the right, of course, he always was. But I can't help thinking that if they hadn't made David believe that everything he did was a disgrace to the family, even when he was just a boy and the things he did weren't really disgraceful, he wouldn't have grown up with the conviction that he was no good anyhow, and might as well be as black as he was painted. They wanted him to be like his brother, you see, and he could hever be like him—he was born different.

"I heard him slip down the stairs that night, but I didn't try to stop him. I couldn't be sorry he was leavening us. It's only honest to say that he wasn't any credit to the family. But they wouldn't give him the kind of life he wanted and was fitted for. I hope he found it before he died." "How did he die?" Peter asked curiously.

"Jerome got the word of—his death years later. He never told us much about it, so I suppose even his death wasn't a credit to us. I think he was relieved that David was completely out of the way at last. The relation between those brothers wasn't quite what you'd think. All David asked before he found out that it was hopeless to ask it—was to be allowed to be himself and not an imitation of Jerome. If they'd let him go off that time and be a cowboy—but of course that was out of the question." Cousin Maria's thin breast rose and fell in a long tremulous sigh.

NEW- YORK, Jan. 22.-(A)-Stocks kept bonds company in a rather decisive advance today. Short covering, particularly in the Short covering, particularly in the last hour, sent prices up 1 to 2 points or more and the market closed strong, showing the best activity of the year during the last hour rally. Sales of 1,860,740 shares were about 450,000 larger than yesterday's. Bond easily kept their heads above water, despite $75,000,000 in new issues. Grains lagged, but cotton rallied. Continued strength of the rails from the opening made the shorts uneasy and bear lines were pulled aboard in all directions. Suspension of a member firm having headquarters in the interior passed unnoticed.

Inasmuch as stocks had been irregularly higher during the week covered by the brokers' loan report, the drop of $63,000,000 was construed as evidence of investment busing of $63,000,000 was construed as evidence of investment buying.

The Bank of England lost about $11,000,000 in gold during the past week, while the French bank's reserves increased by a slightly larger amount, which means that measures taken to check the movement from London to Paris have not yet been effective.

Cotton Letters.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(P)—An early advance in cotton met slightly increased offerings today, but they were absorbed on comparatively modurate reactions by continued trade buying and covering. March contracts after selling up to 10.48 early, or nearly $2 per bale above the low price of last Tuesday morning, reacted to 10.40 and closed at 10.43. The general market closed steady with old January net unchanged, while other months showed net advances of 8 to 17 points.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22—(P)—Stagsered by estimates that Argentina would be able to export corn in record-breaking volume this season, corn fe!! almost 2 cents a bushel today.

Buenos Aires dispatches said the crop would furnish 390,000,000 bushels for expare of 250,000,000.

Stop-loss selliles lacked force.

Corn closed nervous 7-8 to 11-4c off to 1-4 up, oats 1-4 to 3-8 down, decline.

The drop in corn was from  $\begin{array}{c} 58,797,249.35 \\ 3,867,442.98 \\ 205,529.12 \\ 285,002.72 \end{array}$

The drop in corn was from top prices scored on an early bulge that accompanied a transient advance of wheat. Word of further rains in Arwheat.

Wheat was unaffected by reports Wheat was unaffected by reports that stabilization operations would end in May. Chairman Legge said the federal farm board had made no decision. Wheat trade in Chicago yesterday was reported as only 6,000,000 bushels, compared with almost 38,000,000 a year ago. Outs traders besed hushels, compared with almost 38,000.000 a year ago. Oats traders based operations on the course of other cereals.
Provisions averaged lower, sympathizing with grains and hogs.

OIL MAN PREDICTS FIRM TO FEEL LOSS

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—(P)—Frank Paillips, president of the Phillips Petroleum Company, said in an interview today that the effect of the depressed condition of the industry during the fourth quarter "will be reflected in substantial losses to our company in common with many others."

as saying that pending completion of the annual audit the full year's earn-ings cannot be more definitely fore-cast. The annual statement will not be ready until early in March.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(49)—
Southern canned goods producers and carriers in that area have submitted to the interstate commerce commission for final adjudication a controversy as to whether freight rates on those products should be fixed at 35 per cent of existing rates on first class shipments or at 27 1-2 per cent. Railroads have contended for the higher percentage while shippers have demanded that the commission adopt the lower percentage.

TARZAN AND THE GOLDEN LION No. 83

"You cannot send him away," cried the girl, "not even YOU could be so cruel!" Then turning to the Russian: "O, Carl! Save me from this beast." For answer, Carl Kraski leveled his automatic and fired at the Spaniard. The bullet missed its target. Before he could bring his rifle into action, Esteban threw his heavy spear whose barbed shaft tore through Kraski's heart. Without a sound the Russian fell dead.

The girl looked at him, and shuddered. "Mad!" she thought, "I am alone in the jungle with a mad-man." In one respect Esteban was mad; with the madness of the artist who lives his part. So pro-ficient had the Spaniard become in the interpreta-tion of his role that he might have deceived Tarzan's best friends in outward appearance. But within that perfect form was the heart of a cur and the soul of a craven.

Voluntary Control Practice Advocated by Harrison To Check Monies for "Gambling" Purposes.

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(P)—
Voluntary control of what was termed a "bootleg banking system" was advocated before the senate banking investigating committee today by George L. Harrison, governor of the federal reserve bank of New York, as a means of checking the flow of credit for stock speculation.
Harrison described the "bootleg" system as one under which individuals and corporations, attracted by high system as one under which individuals and corporations, attracted by high rates on ready money, have banks loan money for them to brokers on stock exchange collateral.

J. Herbert Case, chairman of the board of the New York reserve bank, said such loans rose from $1,500,000,000 before the collapse of the market in 1929 and since they were not bank funds it was difficult to control the speculation moverning to the speculation moverning the speculation moverning to the speculation moverning the special speculation in the Peachtree Arcade building, at the annual meeting of that body held Thursday night in the Arcade cafeteria. Mr. Weinstock will succeed J. V. Wellborn. Vice presidents are Miss Margaret Waite and Joseph Company and Special Spec

YOUNG OPTIMISTIC.

In "Abraham Lincoln," offered this week at the Paramount, the producers have made an honest effort to give a true revelation of the Lincoln avatar. Walter Huston does an intelligent job in the title role. Between them they have contrived to produce something that is as near, perhaps, as drama ever is permitted to get to the real life of a national hero.

Despite portions that look and sound like a talking history book page and are as human, there are moments

YOUNG OPTIMISTIC.

The issuance of an optimistic statement by Owen D. Young following the close of the market was considered significant. Mr. Young is a man of few words so that his utterances before the New York State Bankers Association at the local federal reserve bank today attracted considerable attention in the financial district.

The action of the general market in recovering so quickly was a source of much encouragement to groups which are operating on the constructive side in innumerable low-priced issues.

Announcement that brokers loans sound like a talking history book page and are as human, there are mements when one may catch fleeting glimpses of a strange and lonely man. Occasionally, limned against a background of banal anecdote, you can see that queer, almost uncouth westerner as he struggled with one of history's hardest jobs. Wrestled stubsornly with a task made staggering almost as much by the distrust and cowardice of his friends as by the stall-wart opposition of his enemies.

As best we remember our text books and all too limited subsequent studies, the action follows fact rather closely. There is some trick photography that could well have been dispensed with and a bit of unadulterated hokum finds its way in occasionally but if for the last week had declined 500, 000,000 indicates the continued transfer of stocks from marginal to investment accounts, which is considered the best kind of distribution.

Evidence that Wall Street is in a more optimistic mood was furnished by the fact that the failure of a stock by the fact that the failure of a stock.

The usual complement of short subscriptions are complete the program. finds its way in occasionally but if those trying days interest you at all the picture should be worth your time. It's no epic but it is no trav-esty.

The Interwoven Pair, Billy Jones and Ernie Hare, will cut capers in music and chatter by offering such songs as "When the Bath-Tub Warblers Vocalize," over the NBC network including WSB, at 8 o'clock tonight. The musical program will be directed by William Perry.

Because of repeated requests from listeners, the Philco Symphony Orchestra will brondcast one of the favorite numbers in its repertoire tonight in a special transcription program from station WSB at 7:15 o'clock. The number is Pierne's tuneful "March of the Little Lead Soldiers," which the orchestra broadcast several weeks ago over the Columbia network.

Mary B. Mur..y, home economics director, will be back on WSB at 11:15 o'clock this morning. Miss Murray's helpful weekly chats were a radio feature last fall. The first of her new series will tell of novel ways to cook potatoes so that they are tasty as any food that comes to the table. The talks are broadcast with the compliments of Wesson Oil and Snowdrift people.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—(A)—Assistant Director A. B. Cammerer, of the national park service, today said the park service would continue with its plans for establishing the Great Smoky Mountains National nack

Cammerer, commenting upon the action of the Champion Fibre Company in announcing the intention of resuming lumbering in the park area, said this company was only one of the landowners within the territory.

The states of Tennessee and North Carolina have acquired 158,000 acres which have been accepted by the government, Cammerer said, and have, in addition, 50,000 acres to be offered.

The government requires that the states donate 427,000 acres.

Superintendent Eakin, of the park, Cammerer said, will take landscape artists and engineers into the Great Smoky area about March 1 to survey and beautify the territory.

York, that student interests are opinary importance in the projection of the task of a college.

of the task of a college.

The statement suggested the college's first job was that of ascertaining, the second as appraising and the third, developing those interests; but differences arose among the educators as to how the last task would be accomplished. While some held out for required subjects in the curriculum and others thought interests themselves should serve as levers to pry the student into necessary girding, all seemed to agree that teachers are the "weak spot in the school system today.'

In Memoriam.

In Memoriam.

(COLORED)

In memory of my dear wife and our loving mother, Mrs. Addie Jones, who passed away two years ago today, January 23, 1929. Remembrance is a golden chain, Death fries to break but all in vain; To have, to love, and thou to part Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
